

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 25, 1902

LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:02 a. m. and sets at 4:44 p. m. High water at 4:49 a. m. and 5:10 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section rain and cooler tonight; Wednesday rain, followed by clearing; fresh to brisk northerly winds, increasing.

Cotton Factory to be Sold.

An advertisement elsewhere in the Gazette announces that the Mount Vernon Cotton Factory will be sold at public auction on Wednesday, December 24. For nearly a quarter of a century the cotton factory was an important adjunct to Alexandria's prosperity by reason of the number of young and old who were employed therein. Many years ago the machinery became silent and there are men and women among us who were unborn when the hum of the cotton factory was heard. Now that the building and machinery are to be placed on the market, it is hoped some enterprising person will take charge of the plant and, should it not be again used for the purpose for which it was erected, may it once more be the scene of activity for some other branch of manufactures.

Donation Day.

The managers of the Infirmary remind their friends that Thanksgiving Day is the season they look to for donations of money, groceries, provisions of all kinds, household articles, in short any and everything that can be made useful in such an institution. The Infirmary has for its constant aim the furnishing of the best attention to the sick and suffering, and as small an expense as possible, and, if need be, to give this service gratis. Each year a large number of patients are treated gratuitously, but it is only through the hearty co-operation of its many friends that its measure of usefulness has been so large. A committee of the managers will be in attendance at the Infirmary on Thanksgiving Day from 10 a. m. to receive donations.

Sent Out of Town.

Officer Nicholson arrested a limping individual yesterday who gave his name as Walter Johnson and who said he was a native of Winchester. He was charged with vagrancy, as it was said he had been entering houses and asking aid. It was also averred that in one instance he entered a residence and secreted himself under a bed where he was found by a lady who forced him to leave the premises. When placed in the dock this morning Johnson said he came here from Washington and that he was on his way to his home. Mayor Simpson ordered that he be placed on the ferry boat and sent back to Washington, with the assurance that should he again be found in Alexandria he will be placed on the chain gang.

Want Their Land Again.

During last winter and spring the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railway Company entered proceedings in the County Court for the condemnation of land for a right of way from the Aqueduct Bridge, opposite Georgetown, northwesterly through the county of Alexandria toward the Great Falls, and almost in every instance the land was condemned for said company for its roadbed and right of way but as the company has taken no steps toward building or constructing said road, many of these land owners are now considering the propriety of going into court and asking the judge to set aside the condemnation of their lands and to have their lands revert back to them.

C. & O. Trains in Collision.

A north-bound passenger train on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad which passed through this city about half-past five o'clock yesterday morning collided with a switching engine in the New Jersey yard about twenty minutes later. None of the passengers were injured. After a delay of a few minutes the passenger train went on its way. The switching engine was going into the main track from a siding. Both engines were badly damaged. The train was brought quickly to a standstill, and only a few of the passengers were aware that the collision occurred. It was stated here yesterday that the passenger train had side-swiped a freight train, but the above are the facts in the case.

Entertained War Acquaintance.

Rev. John Cavanaugh, formerly pastor of the Free Methodist Church in this city, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by a few days ago in White Haven, Pa., by Mr. John Morris, who was a member of the Army of the Potomac during the civil war. The host became acquainted with his guest in 1865 while the former was guarding a military prison in which the ex-bugler of Stuart's cavalry was confined.

Charged with Theft.

William Thompson and another colored boy named Quill were brought before the Mayor this morning, the first named as a suspicious character and his companion as having information concerning the tobacco reported yesterday by Officer Allen as having been found by Mr. Dan. Warder in an old building in West End. The Mayor concluded to hold both boys for a further examination.

A Dismal Day.

The rainy weather of yesterday continued throughout the night and during most of today. The wind was from the northeast and it blew raw and cold, occasionally coming in heavy flurries. The scene around the river front was dismal and cheerless, and but few people were seen about the wharves. Comparatively few people were on the street and only those who were compelled to be out.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late William Abts, who died early yesterday morning at the Providence Hospital, Washington, took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, from St. Mary's Church. Rev. Father H. J. Cutler officiated, and the remains were placed in the vault in St. Mary's Cemetery.

The Persistent Advertiser.

There is no doubt that any business man who advertises persistently in a respectable newspaper achieves a standing in the community which he could not reach in any other way. The character of a newspaper influences the popular conception of the advertiser. (Philadelphia Record.)

Conference at St. Mary's Rectory.

The priests of the northern conference of the Diocese of Richmond assembled at St. Mary's rectory this morning. The following priests were present: Rev. Joseph Ferris, Lynchburg; Van Ingelhem, Staunton; Wm. Carrol, Norfolk; Jas. Collins, Harper's Ferry; D. J. Coleman, Fredericksburg; T. J. Wilson, Newport News; Chas. E. Donahoe, Martinsburg; E. M. Tearney, Falls Church; F. Patrick, Warrenton; E. J. Walsh, Norfolk; H. J. Cutler, Alexandria, and Wm. A. McKeefy, Winchester. Interesting papers on "the primitive condition of our first parents, Adam and Eve," and on "the history of Biblical interpretation from the reformation among Protestants and Catholics," were read by Father McKeefy, of Winchester, and Charles E. Donahoe, of Martinsburg. W. Va. Rev. Father Cutler presided at the conference, and Rev. Wm. A. McKeefy acted as secretary. Before adjournment the conference adopted appropriate resolutions in reference to the death of Father Wm. B. Hanley, the oldest member of the conference, who, after many years of faithful service, died at his post of duty in Portsmouth, Va.

Personal.

Mr. Broadus, from Alexandria, is the guest of Mrs. John C. Emmons on High street, Portsmouth. Miss Emily Allyn has returned from a visit to friends in Alexandria. (Norfolk Landmark.) Miss Cornelia Packard, formerly of Seminary Hill, will make her home in this city and will reside in one of the recently erected dwellings on Pitt street, between Duke and Wolfe.

Miss Nannie Jones has gone to Atlanta to spend the winter with her uncle, Mr. Carroll Payne of that city.

Mr. Howard Corbett, of Suffolk, and Miss Roberta Ansley will be married tomorrow night at the residence of Capt. H. C. Ansley. The wedding will be a quiet one and only the relatives and immediate friends of the two families will be present.

Mrs. Chas. F. Nash left Baltimore to-day for San Juan, Puerto Rico, the U. S. S. Algonquin, to which her husband, Lieut. C. F. Nash, is attached, having been assigned to that station.

The Goings Trial.

As was stated in the Gazette, the trial of Wm. Goings, colored, charged with killing Millard R. Birch in a Rosslyn saloon, began in the County Court yesterday. The killing occurred on the night of the 8th of last October, Birch's skull having been fractured. The evidence so far is to the effect that on the night in question a fight took place between Birch and the negro. According to one witness Goings was the aggressor. White and colored people were drinking at the bar at the time. The examination of witnesses was continued today.

Another Granolithic Pavement.

Mr. Ernest Boyer has secured the contract for laying a granolithic pavement in front of the Opera House, southwest corner of King and Pitt streets. Numbers of this style of sidewalk have been laid on King street during the past few months and others are contemplated by property owners. In many instances sunken pavements alongside of the new ones form lakes in rainy weather, and in such cases the property owners will either be compelled to raise the pavements or follow the fashion by having modern sidewalks constructed.

Jumped on a Ten-Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and one nail was thrust entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.
